The world of online book sales can be overwhelming.
JPL Books and Color House Graphics work together seamlessly to offer a variety of storage and fulfillment services, including Amazon, Ingram, Christian Book Distributors and more.

Digital & Offset Printing

Full-service book manufacturing, including print on demand and large run offset printing, keep your books in stock and readily available. No shipping charges from printer to the warehouse when utilizing our print services.

Sales & Marketing Services

Sales and marketing support for your book distribution needs includes trade representation and marketing ideas.

Design & Production Services

Book cover design, interior design, formatting, and marketing design are all supplemental options to keep your book services all at one source to streamline your needs.

Trade Distribution

Full-service fulfillment includes e-commerce management, retail, direct-to-customer shipping, and distribution account management. Save with prorated shipping and discounts by using JPL's shipping accounts. Amazon, Ingram, and other large trade accounts are available.

Warehousing & Fulfillment

Clean, organized, and temperature-controlled warehousing for your storage needs. A convenient Midwest location reaches your entire US market economically.

Inventory Management

Fully customized reports for your sales and inventory management are provided monthly. One-on-one customer service ensures excellent communication and quick response times for your questions. Ask us about managing your print ordering to keep your inventory levels up to par without any stress on your part.
